

TOVAH FELDSHUH

Tovah Feldshuh is best known for her work on the New York stage having won four Drama Desk awards and four Outer Critics Circle Awards as well as being nominated for four Toni awards. She also won the Lucille Lortel Award for Best Actress for Golda's Balcony which was the longest running one woman show in Broadway history. Some of the other plays she has been in are Yentl, Lend Me a Tenor, and the long running hit The Vagina Monologues. In addition to the stage, Ms. Feldshuh has appeared on the screen in films such as "Kissing Jessica Stein" for which she won the Golden Satellite Award for Best Supporting Actress. Most recently she appeared onscreen in "Lady in the Water" for M. Night Shyamalan opposite Paul Giamatti and "Just My Luck" with Lindsay Lohan. On television, she received her first Emmy nomination for her portrayal of the Czech freedom fighter Helena in Holocaust. In 2004 she was nominated for her second Emmy for her work on Law & Order as defense attorney Danielle Melnick. Ms. Feldshuh is a graduate of Sarah Lawrence College and has taught at Yale, Cornell and NYU. She received an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters in 2005 and has received the Eleanor Roosevelt Humanities Award and the Israel Peace Medal. Ms. Feldshuh is married to New York attorney, Andrew Harris Levy. They have two children.